CITY SLICK

Kiehl's is celebrating each of its global locations with special product designs that are customised for each town and city. The brand teamed up with renowned international design agency Radio to capture the bustling Singapore cityscape in a collection called Kiehl's Loves. The designs of the products in the collection pay homage to the various local icons, from the Merlion to local delicacies like satay. There are three products in the collection — the Calendula Herbal-Extract Toner ($58), Ultra Facial Cream ($48) and Ultra Facial Oil-Free Gel Cream ($48), all of which are decorated in the national colours of white and red. All proceeds of the collection will be donated to the Children's Cancer Foundation. Plus, Kiehl's is having a volunteer partnership with the Children's Cancer Foundation — for every selfie posted with the hashtags #loveyourlocals and #kiehlslovessg, the brand will donate one minute of volunteer work. Who said the city has to be coldhearted?

LOVE THE SKIN YOU'RE IN

We were heartbroken when we heard our beloved La Mer The Powder was going to be discontinued. But we were very quickly consoled by the news that La Mer would be introducing a new base makeup collection. The collection includes the Soft Fluid Long Wear Foundation ($160), The Concealer ($120), The Powder ($160), The Foundation Brush ($110) and The Powder Brush ($140). The foundation and concealer are infused with a potent dose of La Mer's Miracle Broth to create a smooth, ageless complexion.

TWIN PEAKS

A few weeks ago, Spanish fashion house Loewe launched its first fragrances with nary a whisper, true to its understated style. The Loewe 001 collection comprises two fragrances, simply named Man and Woman. They evoke memories of a morning after, full of purity and uncertain promise. Both fragrances have top notes of tangerine and bergamot, and a heart full of sandalwood. Woman ends off with the floral sweetness of jasmine and vanilla, while Man dries down to cedar and musk.

RAZOR BURN

If you struggle with skin irritation after using shaving gel, that's because your razor is removing that shaving gel as you re-stroke over the same area of your face. The all-new Gillette Fusion ProShield Razor prevents razor burns and skin irritation as it features a lubrication bar on both sides of its blades to ensure a precised and comfortable shaving experience.

SINGAPORE BEAUTY WEEK

SINGAPORE BEAUTY WEEK

For the first time ever, Singapore Beauty Week allows you to experience the finest beauty services without busting your wallet. Luxury beauty treatments specially curated from various segments of the industry ranging from hair styling, nail grooming to body massages, facial treatments, and even laser therapy are now made affordable for customers. Participating merchants include Prep, Capella's Auriga Spa, Graceous and many more. All you have to do is log on to www.beautyweek.sg to select your preferred treatments and book an appointment slot during the week.

FREEZE TIME

Japanese luxury skincare brand Albion has launched its latest Excia Embeage skincare line, which aims to stop the passage of time by awakening the skin's "longevity gene". The brand discovered a natural substance in the body known as DHEA, an antioxidant found in abundance in the body up to your mid-20s, after which it starts to decline. The new line is intended to boost DHEA in the skin cells and prevent ageing at a genetic level, and consists of 3 products: A Milk ($260), Lotion ($260), and Dioneclar cream ($360).

BY ANY OTHER NAME

Perfume house Byredo is famous for its delectable scents, whose names themselves evoke a certain mood and spark the imagination — think Flowerhead, Mojave Ghost or Rose of No Man's Land. This time, to celebrate its 10th anniversary, the brand is launching yet another perfume. Only this time, it will remain nameless, free for personalisation. The fragrance itself smells of spicy pink pepper, icy gin, woody pines, and green balsam fir. It is, like most of Byredo's scents, unisex.

FRENCH TOUCH

Yet another luxurious facial treatment comes our way, courtesy of TaraBliss Spa. The patented Méthode Jeanne Piaubert SlimFace Lymphatic Drainage Face Treatment detoxifies the skin from within, using gentle but thorough lymphatic drainage massage techniques to boost blood circulation and de-puff the face. The treatment is perfect before special events as it has no down time but still visibly slims and brightens the complexion.
